FADS AND FASHIONS

New York, March 18.—The exhibition of spring styles in the leading shops shows a great variety of one-piece gowns, although their variety depends almost exclusively upon the difference in materials, colors, trimmings and superficial variants of design, the general characteristic of silhouette being practically the same in every case. Neat one-piece walking frocks, adapted for early spring use, are displayed in large numbers. They range from the severe tailored model to delectable soft little frocks of silk or chiffon or marquisette dainty enough for afternoon uses, yet short, simple and dark enough to be practical for street wear.

The frocks representing a more severe type are developed chiefly in the full fine twill serges and light weight wools of soft, firm weave. The dark blues, almost invariably trimmed in black, are of course universal favorites; but there are some very smart models in light browns and the line of soft cool creamy tans which have individual and appropriate names, but may be said to belong to the group of champagne tints.

The black and white mixtures stand beside the dark blues in the list of favorites and there is far more variety in this line than ordinarily. The well known shepherd plaids and broken chicken foot checks are again in evidence, but there are numerous other neat little designs on the same general order. Tiny triangles or cubes or octagons set together point to point are a relief from the long familiar checks and sometimes these little figures are so arranged as to give an irregular stripe line instead of an allover design. There are too some very good looking black and white checked stuffs which differ from the familiar shepherd plaids in weave rather than design, having a suggestion of the loose homespun quality in the weave, though they are comparatively smooth and firm and very light and supple.

There are some good black and white effects in basket weave too, and all these vieable and charming one-piece models trimmed in black and, as a rule, relieved by perfectly plain skirt with front and back panel and a plain bodice with sleeve and body in one and a big collar of black satin extending to the girdle in front and of square sailor shape in the back.

A note of red, cerise, French blue or emerald green is very often introduced into the black and white frock and bite of Persian or Russian silk or embroidery are also used as trimmings; but some of the very best looking trotting frocks in the black and white are entirely without color relief, the color note being left to hat, parasol, etc., used with the frock.

Large quantities of metallic trimmings almost all in the view of dull finish, are shown in the shops and on the imported models. Galons, laces, embroideries, braids of all kinds, nets, everything imaginable in the metallic line gleams dully on the trimming counters, and cord in the dull gold, silver and gun metal is in great demand now that cord girdles are so much the thing for defining the high waist line of the empire

A BIT OF ADVICE
First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache; headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural in appearance, do not delay. The kidneys are calling for help. Slight symptoms of kidney trouble are but fore-runners of more serious complaints. They should be given attention before it is too late.

Dean's Kidney Pills cure kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can East Las Vegas residents desire more convincing proof than the statement of an East Las Vegas citizen who says that the cure Dean's Kidney Pills effected years ago has proven permanent?
Jacob Kenestrick, 704 Lincoln ave., East Las Vegas, N. M., says: "My opinion of Dean's Kidney Pills, which was publicly expressed in a testimonial I gave in their favor two and a half years ago, remains unchanged. Whenever I have taken Dean's Kidney Pills, procured from the Center Block Pharmacy, they have brought me relief from kidney complaint. I am glad to give this remedy the praise it deserves."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Dean's—and take no other.

frock. These girdles, ready for use with pendant or tassel finish, are also offered in the trimming department, as are the same cords in black and colors.

The new foulards, while retaining all the charm and durability of former years, seem more supple and the colors are distinctly more artistic. Almost all of them have patterns of graduated dots or spots. Washable voile and French crepe and wash marquisettes are expected to rival the foulards in favor for spring and summer wear, while for gowns, of a heavier variety, the tailor made suits, there are beautiful French serges, Scotch handloom tweeds and ratines.

The new laces are beautiful, and the heavy laces, such as fine Irish, Venetian, fillet, antique and Russian are in great demand, as are the finer laces of familiar character and the French and Italian novelties. It is said that this is to be a great lace season, not only trimming but whole frocks and coats of lace promising to have a great vogue.

Among the novelties in trimmings are such of coarse heavy cream fillet met with hand darned designs in colors wonderfully blended and often Oriental in their soft richness of harmony. There are wonderfully handsome bands and motif trimmings too in heavy lace, such as real fillet, combined with hand embroidery on sheer or heavy linen.

For costume blouses the chiffon and marquisette veiled effects are still liked, although there seems to be a slight tendency among the French designers to break away from this long popular idea and to experiment with the soft crepes, satins, etc., without veiling. There are a few very good looking French blouses in the new foulards, very simple affairs redeemed by extremely chic and original notes in cravat or collar. The exaggeratedly large white dots distributed not too closely on a colored ground, which promise to be among the popular things in foulard, though they certainly will not be universally becoming, were the design used for some of these blouses, shown in one of the fashionable shops.

The spring millinery displays in the shops are unusually attractive this year. There is an endless variety of shapes and styles, from the most pretentious and enormous picture hats to the neatest and simplest toques of diminutive size. Many of the new toques have an elliptical shape and a slight peak at the front over the face. The violet and silver hats are extremely beautiful. These models are usually made of a silver lace drawn over net of a corresponding color, violet colored plumes or the flowers in natural semblance forming the trimming.

Chantilly is enormously fashionable in millinery this year. A burnt orange straw veiled with black chantilly shown in one of the shops, was unusually attractive. Quite as effective was another model of chantilly over white French Calais lace. These two laces are especially pretty when combined in transparent manner.

Bengaline silk ribbon is the newest note in millinery, and very hand some are these broad, soft rep ribbons which, perhaps only because they are new and "the thing," seem much smarter than the familiar satin and taffeta ribbons.

Lace is extravagantly used in the spring millinery, white as well as black lace. Some of the prettier hats are made entirely of white lace, neatly shirred over wire frames, layers of net or chiffon, of course, being drawn between the shirred lace and the crude wire to give the hat a finished effect and air lightness.

Bands for the hair are extremely modish. Some encircle the head; others are only half bands, terminating just below the top of the ear, or pass across the back of the head, supporting the hair.

Bands for the hair of black or colored velvet or satin, ornamented with sprays of small flowers and leaves made of satin, gold or silver, are extremely effective and can easily be fashioned at home.

A Special Medicine for Kidney Ailments

Many elderly people have found in Foley's Kidney Remedy a quick relief and permanent benefit from kidney and bladder ailments and from annoying urinary irregularities due to advancing years. Isaac N. Regan, Farmer, Mo., says: "Foley's Kidney Remedy effected a complete cure in my case and I want others to know of it." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

A man with a chronic grouch makes a good horrible example.

How Many Can Dad Answer?

An examination framed to test the general information of the students has just been held in the Adelphi Academy, in Brooklyn, with a prize of $10 offered for the best set of answers. Since the test was held a good many Brooklyn parents have been puzzling over the questions, and the combined efforts of a dozen supposedly well-informed citizens at a downtown luncheon club yesterday failed to produce a perfect paper. Here are the questions:

1. What is the population of Brooklyn?
2. In what year was Brooklyn settled?
3. Where did Brooklyn get its name?
4. What streets in Brooklyn are named after Polish officers who came to fight for American independence?
5. What street in Brooklyn is named after a French patriot who served upon General Washington's staff?

Warning to Railroad Men
Lookout for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroad work. Geo. E. Bell, 639 Third St., Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroad life left my kidneys in terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me much distress, and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends." O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

Do you know that all the minor ailments colds are by far the most dangerous? It is not the cold itself that you need to fear, but the serious diseases that it often leads to. Most of these are known as germ diseases. Pneumonia and consumption are among them. Why not take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and cure your cold while you can? For sale by all druggists.

A Cold, La Grippe, then Pneumonia
Is too often the fatal sequence. Foley's Honey and Tar expel the cold, checks the la grippe, and prevents pneumonia. It is a prompt and reliable cough medicine that contains no narcotics. It is as safe for your children as yourself. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.

A Mother's Safeguard
Foley's Honey and Tar for the children. Is best and safest for all coughs, colds, croup, whooping-cough and bronchitis. No opiates. O. G. Schaefer and Red Cross Drug Co.
